CINEMA NOTES

This special bumper edition of the Triskel Christchurch programme covers the schedule right up until our final screenings of 2016. There is comedy with Hunt For The Wilderpeople and Cafe Society; horror with Scream and 31, raw drama with American Honey and I, Olga Hepnarova, and a special retrospective of three groundbreaking films directed by Paul Morrissey starring Joe Dallesandro. Along with our annual screenings of It's A Wonderful Life and The Muppet Christmas Carol, for Christmas this year we present two chances to see the eighties action classic Die Hard back on the big screen.

Last but certainly not least, Triskel Christchurch is delighted to present an exclusive: Into The Forest is an apocalyptic drama starring Ellen Page and Evan Rachel Wood as siblings learning to survive as society descends into chaos. This affecting and beautifully-acted tale not be screened in any other cinema in Ireland.

Chris O'Neill - Head Of Cinema

F-RATED

Triskel Arts Centre is proud to announce its association with The F-Rating initiative. Developed in the Bath Film Festival in 2014, the F-Rating is a new film rating which will highlight those with a strong female voice.

To earn an F-rating, a movie has to answer yes to one of these three questions: does it have a female director, does it have a female writer, or are there significant female characters on screen in their own right? Triskel Arts Centre has voluntarily incorporated this rating. More information on F-Rating can be found on their Facebook (search @BeF.Rated) and Twitter (@F_Rating) accounts.
