CINEMA NOTES
Spring sees yet another exceptional line-up of feature films at Triskel Christchurch. There is the biopic of Vincent van Gogh from the director of The Diving Bell and the Butterfly with an Oscar nominated performance by Willem Dafoe. We bring back the incredibly popular documentaries The Camino Voyage and RBG, along with the powerful new Irish film Unquiet Graves, and a final chance to see the Academy Award winning film Free Solo. There are films by female directors Sara Colangelo (The Kindergarten Teacher), Alice Rohrwacher (Happy As Lazzaro), Carol Morley (Out of Blue) and Josephine Decker (Madeline's Madeline). There are films from Israel (Foxtrot), Sweden (Border), France (Sorry Angel) and Italy (Loro). And, last but not least, we have the fondly remembered classic Steven Spielberg production The Goonies.

We are also delighted to once again be one of the venues hosting the Japanese Film Festival for another year, offering a nice mix of live action features, anime and

F-RATED
Triskel Arts Centre is proud to take part in The F-Rating initiative. Developed by the Bath Film Festival in 2014, the F-Rating is a rating which highlights films with a strong female voice. To earn an F-rating, a movie has to have a female director and/or a female writer. Triskel Arts Centre has voluntarily incorporated this rating, for more information visit this website: <http://f-rated.org>
