AN EVENING WITH NICK McLEAN

Triskel Arts Centre is delighted to welcome legendary Hollywood cinematographer Nick McLean to take part in an evening of screenings and talks honouring his acclaimed work in American Cinema. As Camera Operator or Cinematographer, McLean has worked on the likes of McCabe & Mrs Miller, Close Encounters of the Third Kind, The Deer Hunter, Marathon Man, Being There, The Right Stuff, City Heat, The Goonies, Short Circuit, Spaceballs, and many more.

On Friday 8th March there will be a screening of the 1980s box office hit Short Circuit which will be followed by a public discussion with McLean and Hot Press writer Wayne Byrne focussing on McLean's storied career (the duo has just co-authored a book on McLean's life and prolific work behind the camera). Later on the same evening, McLean will introduce a screening of the cult action movie Cobra.

Please note that the public discussion with Nick McLean will be part of the Short Circuit ticket price.

CINEMA NOTES

Here is another diverse and exciting cinema programme at Triskel Christchurch, with highly acclaimed documentaries (The Camino Voyage, Three Identical Strangers, RBG and Free Solo), a range of Academy Award-nominated pictures (Can You Ever Forgive Me?, Capernaum and If Beale Street Could Talk) and other notable pictures from around the world (Good Favour, Burning, Destroyer and The House by the Sea). Besides our regular cinema line-up. we also have two Twisted Celluloid presentations (the Japanese smash hit One Cut of the Dead and Alien, which celebrates its 40th anniversary this year), a rare showing of The Other Side of the Underneath as part of our Phantoscope strand, an evening showcasing the talents of cinematographer Nick McLean (with the man himself in person), and a special season of British films from the past five decades.

This brochure also sees a significant change to the programme at Triskel Arts Centre: from March 2019 onwards, weekly cinema screenings will now be extended to run over five nights (Sunday-Thursday).

Sonic Youth released their sixth album Daydream Nation on October

18,1988. The album was an immediate critical success. Robert Palmer wrote in Rolling Stone that it "presents the definitive American guitar band of the Eighties at the height of its powers and prescience". Time has not dimmed the album's lustre: It was selected to the Library of Congress's National Recording Registry in 2005, and in 2013

In celebration of the album's 30th anniversary, Triskel Arts Centre is delighted to welcome to Cork drummer Steve Shelley of Sonic Youth

As well as taking part in a panel discussion, the evening will be a selection of films related to Daydream Nation, including excerpts from Bangs' new concert film, rare and unseen gems from the band's archive, and a new restoration of the Charles Atlas documentary Put
